FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUPER TEENS $1,000 SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS

NextStepU Super Teens contest voting begins May 1, 2014.

Next Step Education Group is excited to announce the 18 finalists in the 2014 Super Teens contest. The one of the 18 finalists with the most votes will be awarded a $1,000 scholarship for college expenses.

The 18 finalists are:

Geneva Bass (Michigan)
Connor Bell (USA)
Yaime Espinoza (Oklahoma)
Devany Howard (New York)
Phoo Kyaw (New York)
Elizabeth Liu (California)
Danielle Mackson (Florida)
Sydney Maki (British Columbia)
Cody May (Texas)
Bianca Palumbo (Massachusetts)
Nitya Rayapati (Texas)
Kaitlyn Sands (Tennessee)
Carolina Sosa (Virginia)
Hillary Tang (California)
Allie Thiesse (South Dakota)
Nichol Vannest (Iowa)
Matthew Yeung (California)
Vivian Yu (Massachusetts)

Students were chosen as finalists after submitting applications through NextStepU.com's website. They were asked to answer six questions about their school success, outside activities, challenges, achievements and plans after graduation. Hundreds of students applied, and these 18 students stood out from the pack for their exemplary grades, volunteering initiatives and ambitious plans after graduating from high school.

Voting will run from May 1 through May 23 online at <http://www.nextstepu.com/super-teen-contest/>. One winner will be announced after May 25, 2014.
